

Song for Whoever

By Beautiful South

Written by Paul Heaton and David Rotheray

Intro:

D Em C D

[Verse]

D Em C D

I love you from the bottom, of my pencil case

D Em C D

I love you in the songs I write and sing

D Em C D

Love you because you put me in my rightful place

Bm Em C D

And I love the PRS cheques, that you bring

G D Am D

Cheap, never cheap, I'll sing you songs till you're asleep

D Em C D

When you've gone upstairs I'll creep and write it all down, down, down, down

[Chorus]

G Em C D

Oh Shirley, Oh Deborah, Oh Julie, Oh Jane

D Em C D

I wrote so many songs about you I forget your name (I forget your name)

G Em C D

Jennifer, Alison, Phillipa, Sue, Deborah, Annabel, too (I forget your name)

G Em C D

Jennifer, Alison, Phillipa, Sue, Deborah, Annabel, too (I forget your name)

[Verse]

D Em C D

I love your from the bottom of my pencil case

D            Em            C            D
I love the way you never ask me why

D            Em            C            D
I love to write about each wrinkle on your face

Bm            Em            C            D
And I love you till my fountain pen runs dry

G            D            Am            D
Deep so deep, the number one I hope to reap

D            Em            C            D
Depends upon the tears you weep, so cry, lover cry, cry, cry, cry

[Chorus]

G            Em            C            D
Oh Cathy, Oh Alison, Oh Phillipa, Oh Sue

D            Em            C            D
You made me so much money I wrote this song for you (I wrote this song for you)

G            Em            C            D
Jennifer, Alison, Phillipa, Sue, Deborah, Annabel, too (I wrote this song for you)

G            Em            C            D
Bm
Jennifer, Alison, Phillipa, Sue, Deborah, Annabel, too (I wrote this song for you)
