

The Wedding Song - Loryn Taggart

VERSE 1

Ive tried all of the words and I've tried so hard it hurts

24

A E/G# F#m Bm
A E A

to write a song about you and me

but Lennon was the "Jack" of his time

Swift stole all the good rhymes its a miracle im still here

CHORUS

What do I do when the words are all used

do I sit back and take in this moment

16 + 8 La's

A E/G# F#m Bm
A E A

Do I cover Adele I know you'd sing it well

Do I sit back and take in this moment

BRIDGE

When the words can't find me and I can't find them

We'll mumble the chorus and we'll just pretend

12

C#m D (x3)
C#m D E7

that today we're brilliant tomorrow depends

VERSE 2

Now that we have your attention I didn't win with abstract affection

I said "Boy will you marry me"

28

A E/G# F#m Bm
A E A

This won't be a wedding song when it comes to the dance

Ill stay to the course of the Kings romance Its the sent of my hair and the gentle touch

I just hope to god that's good enough

CHORUS

What do I do when the words are all used

Do i sit back and take in this moment

16 + 16 La's

A E/G# F#m Bm
A E A

I'm in hysterics because Im looking for lyrics

I'll just sit back and take in this moment
