

Superpower

Jordana Talsky/ Justin Abedin/Sarah McCully

I feel your eyes on me
Feel them running
Feel them run across my skin
It's like I hear you breathe
And you're working
You're working your way to me

I smile and I entice
Make you wonder what it would be like
And if I stoke this fire
Will I survive or turn to ice

CHORUS:

I need a super powerful love
Gimme a super power to love

I am your queen of swords
I've been clever
I've been clever as a fox
Untouchable at first
Now I'm playing
Playing on your checkerboard

The scent of hunger's curse
It was easy, and I'm on the hunt now
Could be a great reward or maybe after I'll feel worse

CHORUS:

I need a super powerful love
Gimme a super power for love
I want a super powerful love
Gimme a super power to love

SOLO

I feel I'm in control
Gonna crack it
Gonna crack your code
It's almost all mapped out in a language,
all my own

But signals scramble up
Another riddle for my pile
I'm in the wild unknown
the charm, the chase, it's not enough

CHORUS:

I need a super powerful love
Gimme a super power for love
I want a super powerful love
Gimme a super power to love
