

Lefroy - By Rogan Mei

Verse 1

Well I'm halfway up of Lefroy
And I'm reaching for the clouds
But I just can't seem to touch'm
No matter how far I stretch out
And I got so quick to climbing
Thinkin' I'd be feeling tall
Now I see it's just the ego
Got me singin' up here at all
Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Verse 2

Oh come on now Amanda you keep moving far away
I hear the whisper of the white pine say
It's all gon be okay
You're safe but never sorry, sometimes sorry is okay
Sometimes sorry wakes us in the night
To shake our crooked ways
Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Chorus:

So I stand on top of Lefroy
And I look out at the world
And I wonder how much searching
Till I find myself a girl
Wonder how long it can be Till I come to see the light
Or if this dimness proves to be
The lover of my kind
I gotta pass some legislation
God damn, right here tonight
To build back up the timbre
Restoration of my life
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Verse 3/ Outro

It's all clear, it's all so easy,

looking out from above
On the ground, these vows may burn up when push comes to shove
But there's a shout deep in my soul
And from my lungs it splits
I feel the bone chill of the evening off the stones now seeping' in Now it just seems kinda silly but I was thinking' of my health
Under some sweet cheap impression might climb up and find myself
Where are you now?
