

I Don't Know

Hurt and heartbreak all around
It's coming even closer now
Tried hard to keep it away
Guess today is not my day

I'm not perfect I know this
Human hands don't hold justice
Take this life and let it be
Is this really meant to be?

Chorus

And i dont know why it is so
Should i stay or should I go
Lord help me to understand
What's in and out of my hands

Vs. 2

Got cancer when I was young
People tell me I'm so strong
Never knew why it came to me
Too big a picture for a child to see

Did my best ,as if I had a choice
Hoping God would hear my voice
It's been almost twenty years
Some days i still live in fear

I know that I'm not special or perfect
Sometimes i don't feel like i deserve it
The deck of cards given to me
The good , the bad and the in-between

Bridge

Was it all done in vain
All the highs and all the pain
Even if i leave or if i stay
I'm in the eye of the hurricane

Trusting there's a bigger picture
Through the storm keep me together
Until the day my race is won
Keep me grounded/anchored in your love

Chorus

Some days i just dont know
Hold me tight or just let go
We were never meant to know
What's gonna happen tomorrow
