

SOMETHING

Livin' a past life. I don't know where you'll lead me.
And I never asked why. I just want you to see me.
But then you push me out. Out on the edge, I'm reeling.
It seems so clear now. I don't know why I give in.

Yeah you never you never you never you never you never
So how would I how would I would how would I how would I how would I ever x 2

Thought I solved all my problems / Guess I just scratched the surface
I swear I'm not trying to hide them / just thought I already learned this
But you dug up all my demons / didn't take you long to find 'em
And I don't know where I keep them / but you come around they go flyin'

Yeah you never you never you never you never you never you never said you would
But I thought oh I thought oh I thought that we could x 2 ... be somethin'

Thought we could be somethin'

Why won't you tell me somethin'?

I don't believe there's nothin'?

But you never you never you never you never you never told me why
So how I could how could I how could I not try to make something
