REVEL

i got caught up trying to prove when i do i always loose myself i take these stolen moments and i revel in myself time is wealth, time is wealth i ran circles around thoughts but the only thing that taught was to run away from feelings never deceiving unless the elixir i was drinking was to numb i tried on other's truths but that never seemed to sooth my health

i got caught up trying to prove

i take these stolen moments & i revel in myself

i tell myself you are the power I tell myself you are the glory
